

you need to be supporting satellite radio, not creating obstacles to the great services that this new technology provides.